Business eCycling Options

Please note: Howard County does not endorse the following listings. There may be a fee associated with electronics recycling.

Computers

A Better Way Computer Recycling

Columbia based. Visit www.abetterwayrecycling.com or call 410-381-5588 for more information.

Apple

www.apple.com/recycling Free Mac recycling, but they will accept and recycle all brands.

Capitol Asset Recycling

Drop-off or pick-up. Visit www.caprecycling.com/electronics-recycling or call 877-247-2616 for details.

Computer Donation Management (CDM)

Located in Baltimore, drop-off or pick-up available. Visit http://cdmecycling.com or call 410-485-4040.

Dell

www.dell.com Search for 'recycling program'.

eBay

http://pages.ebay.com/rethink - Rethink Initiative provides a way to find new users for idle computers and electronics, as well as recycle unwanted products.

E-Structors, Inc.

E-Structors is located in Elkridge, MD. Call (410) 379-3098 for fee information and to schedule a drop-off or pick-up.

Hewlett-Packard

- www.hp.com/recycle to recycle hardware, LaserJet and Inkjet supplies, rechargeable batteries, fluorescent light bulbs and more.
- www.hp.com/united-states/tradein/home_flash.html Money for your old computer

Lazarus Foundation

Non-profit computer refurbishing and donation in Ellicott City, visit www.lazarus.org or call 410-531-8485.

Sony

- www.sonystyle.com Click on Services > Recycling Program Take-back recycling program
- www.sonystyle.com Click on Services > Trade-in Program Notebook trade-in program

Staples

www.staples.com/recycling - Staples Soul take-back and recycling program.

Turtle Wings, Inc.

FREE drop-off of electronics (except CRT monitors). Pick-up is available. www.TURTLEWINGS.com

Cell Phones, PDAs, Cell Phone Batteries and Chargers

Howard County Sheriff's Department

Cell phones are provided to victims of domestic violence. Contact Corporal Bryan Waser at 410-313-4152 for information. Your donation is tax deductible and a receipt will be provided.

Apple

www.apple.com/recycling FREE mail-in recycling of any mobile phones.

AT&T

- www.att.com/recycle Drop-off program for recycling
- Cell Phones for Soldiers mail-in or drop-off program that refurbishes and donates cell phones to soldiers.

Cell Phones, PDAs, Cell Phone Batteries and Chargers, cont...

LG Electronics

www.ecomobilize.com Drop-off and mail-in. Visit the website for a prepaid mailing label.

Motorola

Race to Recycle, Visit www.racetorecycle.com for a FREE prepaid mailing label.

Nokia

Recycle or trade-up (get money for your old phone). Visit www.nokiausa.com/recycle for a FREE prepaid mailing label.

Samsung

Recycling Direct program. Visit www.samsung.com/recycling for a prepaid mailing label.

Sony Ericsson

Visit www.sonyericsson.com/recycle for a prepaid mailing label.

Sprint

- The Sprint Buyback program offers Sprint customers an account credit for returning eligible Sprint and Nextel phones. Visit www.sprint.com and search for "buyback".
- The Sprint Project Connect program accepts wireless phones, batteries, accessories and connection cards for recycling regardless of make, model, condition or service provider. Visit www.sprint.com and search for "project connect" to print a prepaid mailing label.

Staples

Staples Soul take-back and recycling program. Visit www.staples.com/recycling to print a free prepaid mailing label.

T-Mobile

Drop-off phones to any T-Mobile store or visit www.t-mobile.com and search for 'handset recycling' to print a prepaid mailing label.

U.S. Postal Service

The U.S. Postal Service is making it easier for customers to discard used or obsolete small electronics in a responsible way. Customers use free envelopes found in 1,500 Post Offices to mail back inkjet cartridges, PDAs, Blackberries, digital cameras, iPods and MP3 players.

Visit www.usps.com/green/recycle.htm for more information.

Verizon

Determine the value of your device and receive a Verizon Wireless gift card, www.trade-in.vzw.com/.

Other Programs

Gazelle

www.gazelle.com See what your electronics are worth: sell-back or recycle.

YouRenew.com

www.yourenew.com See what your electronics are worth: sell-back or recycle.

Additional Information

www.EPA.gov/ecycling for more information and other government supported donation and recycling programs.

www.1800recycling.com for electronics recycling locations near you.

www.earth911.com for information about eCycling and other recycling.

www.MDrecycles.org provides information about additional local recycling options.

www.electronicsrecycling.org National Center for Electronics Recycling, non-profit organization